

French Citizenship Test Question Report
(November 2012 – January 2013)

Introduction:

New citizenship test questions were introduced. The current citizenship tests are comprised of [redacted] versions containing [redacted] test questions. The following report provides the pass rates for each test question on each test version. The report also provides the distribution of test scores of applicants. This report only provides data for French tests. A similar report with English test results was produced a few weeks back. The test scores and question pass rates are calculated using test copies local offices sent to NHQ. The test results presented in this report were calculated using a sample of 1,650 tests, which comes to about 235 tests per version.
